NCWorks Veterans Services

Learn about resources we offer to those who have served

Are you a veteran who's searching for work? NCWorks is here to help you transition to your next opportunity. Our Career Centers also serve military spouses and other members of your community.

We have specially-trained professionals, who are veterans themselves, and are focused on helping eligible veterans overcome barriers to employment, make career plans, connect to employers who value your background, and find other services in your community. They can help you translate your military experience into civilian language. All our services are free of charge. You've earned it!

Visit the NCWorks Veterans Portal at veterans.NCWorks.gov to find a Career Center near you.

NCWorks Resources include:

- Career assessments
- Labor market information
- Access to training opportunities, job fairs and workshops
- Job interview preparation
- Resume and cover letter assistance
- Assistance with NCWorks Online
- Access to computers and free Internet service
- Help applying for federal employment and training programs in which veterans receive priority of service.

NCWorks Career Centers provide Priority of Service to military Veterans and eligible spouses. Thank you for your service!
